Saunton Sands. This fine expanse of sands, beginning north of Saunton, stretches along south as far as Bideford, under the name of Braunton Burrows. It is a labyrinth of sand-hills and sand-burrows, four or five miles long by a mile broad, and it is said to cover the ruins of one of "the lost [cities] of old days" which has been swallowed by the sand-drifts of centuries.

Hope the mouth is comfortable & that you feel all the better for the pain & trouble. Bitterly cold here but sunny. Would like a cup of Miss Cs superior tea to warm me. Love to all & self from A. D
